Snooze Shutdown is an efficient and reliable utility that enables you to schedule your computer to logoff or reboot whenever you want, while also permitting you to postpone it for a few minutes, letting you first finish your work. Snooze Shutdown Comments: The most important thing about this app is the fact that it requires no installation, requiring you to add it to your system tray only once. This process takes only a few seconds, and does not modify your current Windows boot process in any way. Also, if you decide that you don't need the program anymore, simply right click on it in the system tray, and select 'Disable' from its context menu, which will prompt you to confirm the disabling. The window disappears, and the app is no longer visible in Windows. When you launch it, Snooze Shutdown will
